

2008 Grants

Grant awards were made to the following organizations, whose programs:

- Improve and expand the scope of learning environments of children and youth
- Promote positive interactions among children, youth, and adults, actively involving parents, staff and volunteers, and embracing on-going professional development for those who work directly with children to create their learning environments.

And for non-program grants, to organizations whose proposed projects offer a high return on investment, defined by an opportunity to create a synergistic effect on funding, a means to increase the organization's economic self-sufficiency or similar projects that enhance efficiency and benefit the organization for the long term.
